

Ringrose Law - Complaints Policy/Procedure

- 1 We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service.
- 2 We acknowledge that we may not always get it right, so if something has gone wrong, including in relation to our charges, we need you to tell us. This will help us to improve our standards of service.

3 How do I make a complaint?

- 3.1 You can contact us in writing (by letter or online via our website) or by telephone.
- 3.2 In the first instance, it may be helpful to contact the person dealing with your matter, who will do their best to resolve your concerns. If you do not feel able to discuss your concerns with them, please contact the person responsible for the overall supervision of your matter, who will be named in the engagement letter we sent you at the beginning of your matter.
- 3.3 If you do not feel able to raise your concerns with either of these people, or you are unsatisfied with their response, please contact Mrs Lisa Gamwell, our Complaints Manager. Her contact details are:

Via our website contact page: <https://www.ringroselaw.co.uk/contact-us/>

Ringrose Law, PO Box 10997, Sleaford NG34 4FG

0333 3580 393

Mr David Heath, our Complaints Director, has overall responsibility for complaints handling - his contact details are the same as Mrs Gamwell's.

- 3.4 To help us to understand your complaint, and in order that we do not miss anything, please tell us:
 - 3.4.1 your full name and contact details;
 - 3.4.2 what you think we have got wrong;
 - 3.4.3 how you would like your complaint to be resolved; and
 - 3.4.4 your file reference number (if you have it).
- 3.5 If you require any help in making your complaint we will try to help you.

4 How will you deal with my complaint?

- 4.1 We will write to you within three working days acknowledging your complaint, enclosing a copy of this policy.
- 4.2 We will investigate your complaint. This will usually involve:
 - 4.2.1 reviewing your complaint;
 - 4.2.2 reviewing your file(s) and other relevant documents; and
 - 4.2.3 liaising with the person who dealt with your matter.
- 4.3 We may also need to ask you for further information or documents. If so, we will ask you to provide the information within a specific period of time.
- 4.4 We will update you on the progress of your complaint at appropriate times.
- 4.5 We may also, if appropriate, invite you to a meeting to discuss your complaint. You do not have to attend if you do not wish to or if you are unable to. We will be happy to discuss the matter with you by telephone, or video conference.
- 4.6 We will write to you at the end of our investigation to tell you what we have done and what we propose to do to resolve your complaint. Where possible, we will aim to do this within twenty days of the date of our letter of acknowledgement.

5 What to do if we cannot resolve your complaint

5.1 We have eight weeks to consider your complaint. If we have not resolved it within this time, you may be able to complain to the Legal Ombudsman. This applies if you are an individual, a business with fewer than 10 employees and turnover or assets not exceeding a certain threshold, a charity or trust with a net income of less than £1m, or if you fall within certain other categories (you can find out more from the Legal Ombudsman). The Legal Ombudsman will look at your complaint independently and it will not affect how we handle your matter.

5.2 Before accepting a complaint for investigation, the Legal Ombudsman will check that you have tried to resolve your complaint with us first. If you have, then you must take your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman:

5.2.1 within six months of receiving a final response to your complaint;

and

5.2.2 no more than one year from the date of act/omission or when you should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint.

The Legal Ombudsman has discretion to accept out-of-time complaints in circumstances where it deems it 'fair and reasonable' to do so.

5.3 If you would like more information about the Legal Ombudsman, please contact them:

Visit: www.legalombudsman.org.uk

0300 555 0333 between 10am and 4pm Monday to Friday

Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6167, Slough. SL1 0EH

5.4 Alternative dispute resolution (ADR) bodies exist which are competent to deal with complaints about legal services should both you and our firm wish to use such a scheme. We have, however, chosen not to adopt an ADR process. If, therefore, you wish to complain further, you should contact the Legal Ombudsman.

6 What to do if you are unhappy with our behaviour

6.1 The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money, or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.

6.2 Visit their website at www.sra.org.uk/consumers/problems/report-solicitor/ to see how you can raise your concerns.

7 What will it cost?

7.1 We will not charge you for handling your complaint.

7.2 Please note that if we have issued a bill for work done on the matter, and all or some of the bill is not paid, we may be entitled to charge interest on the amount outstanding. This is explained in our Terms of Business.

7.3 The Legal Ombudsman service is free of charge.
